About Our Business:

Ayurvedic and Naturopathic Medical Clinic is the world's leading IV infusion company. It was founded by a group of board-certified physicians who have over forty years of collective first-hand experience in treating dehydration and low energy levels in patients. Whether you want to improve your health or you are seeking a radiant complexion, IV therapy can help you

IV therapy is best known for its ability to hydrate your body and make you feel your best. It can also improve certain conditions that affect the digestive tract, including Crohn's disease, ulcerative colitis, colon cancer, and cystic fibrosis. Since those ailments may inhibit the absorption of certain vitamins and minerals, IV therapy can help deliver those same nutrients without upsetting the digestive tract.
